Nassau Asset Management's President To Speak About Credit Environment at Investor's Conference In New York

Panel to Discuss "The Role Of The Servicer In An Increasingly Stressed Credit Environment"

WESTBURY, NY, March 9, 2009 – Nassau Asset Management announced that its president, Edward Castagna, will serve as a panelist at the 8th Annual Investor's Conference on Equipment Finance. The conference, co-sponsored by Information Management Network (IMN) and the Equipment Leasing and Finance Association (ELFA), will be held on Thursday, March 19, at the Marriott Marquis Times Square in New York.

Castagna will discuss "The Role of the Servicer in an Increasingly Stressed Credit Environment." The session will focus on the impact of the economy on portfolio performance, the effect of the current credit environment on servicing, creative ways for servicers to make the best of the current situation, and possible changes in the role of the servicer in today's environment.

Kent Williams, executive vice president/chief operating officer, LeaseDimensions, will serve as the moderator of the session, which begins at 10:45 a.m. The other panelists will include John Enyart, president, Portfolio Financial Servicing Company, and Joe Andries, senior vice president, U.S. Bank.

Castagna has more than 15 years of experience in all areas of asset management. In his role as Nassau Asset Management's president, he is responsible for managing internal operations and a growing staff while working on behalf of clients. His accomplishments include transforming the brick-and-mortar business into an e-commerce-enabled company. Castagna serves as a board member of the ELFA.
